

I object to any effort to limit my freedom of choice for this type of safety information. I pay for xm radio TRAFFIC AND WEATHER because it's better quality, more frequent and more convenient than what's available on free traditional radio stations.

It seems strange that taxpayers have to petition their government not to ban useful safety information. Who are you listening to, and why?

Steve Weiss